

Afghanistan, a place where the globe fight against terrorism, where life mean; danger, death and instability.

The Sept Days, an overseas sino- quebecer media manages to send its first war journalist to witness the war after going through many difficulties and barriers. Now she returns to offering you what she sees and lived in a war state, her feelings, and her stories. A seminar which is going to show a true feature of people's life in Afghanistan.

Afghanistan, Through Her Eyes

Seminar and Photo Show by Xian HU

Welcome to attend

Time : Sunday, February 10th 2008, 3:00–5:00pm

Venue : 2/F, 1088 Clark, Chinese Culture Palace (China Town)

Price : Purchase in advance $20 (Adult) $10 (Student)
Ticket at door $30 (Adult) $15 (Student)
(Refreshments provided)

Dress Code : Formal

Ticket Hotline :

Rong Chang Shop—Mr. Chen 514-777-8899

Chinese Culture Palace -- Ms. Xu 514-788-8986

Sept Days News-- Mr. Zhang 514-586-5628, Mr. Wang
514-996-9066, Mr. Wang
514-812-6568, Ms. Yin 514-582-6188

The event day is held during the Chinese New Year. If you are interested in Chinese culture or language, it is a great opportunity for socialization!

Our Thanks goes to these cordially and generous people and organizations

Individuals: Mr. John Chen, Ms. Zhenyu Tian, Ms. Yuning Zhang, Mr. Chaowan Chen, Mr. Zhenxing Wang,
Organizations: Shoukang Cao Insurance & Investment Financial Group Inc, Phoenix Art School
All audience at Sept Days 2007 Wind of Summer Show

Any sponsorship is welcome!
6188

Contact: 514-582-

This event is organized by Sept Days News, Sept Days Club, and Sept Days Web www.septdaysnews.com

Payment Method

You may purchase the tickets at above mentioned places (payable by cash) or book in advance with credit card, then pick up the tickets at door. To purchase by credit card, you may forward your credit card information with expiration date to jjayin6188@gmail.com If you are a member of Sept Days Club, you may purchase with your family and friends, for every 10 tickets, we give 1 ticket for free to express our appreciation. Contact : 514-582-6188